The St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Jazz & Food Festival is proudly presented by St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, a community of about 175 families with a rich and proud history. This parish is rich with history including the honor of being served by the first african-american woman, Sister Cora Marie Billings, who was the Pastoral Coordinator.

Today, under the leadership of Reverend James Arsenault, the parish continues to provide support and outreach to its parishioners as well as members of the Highland Park Community through events such as the Jazz & Food Festival.

St. Elizabeth is a community of people with shared values, shared affection, and shared commitment. We invite you to get to know us through our website, www.stelizcc.org. Explore and discover all the things that make St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Parish special. We would like to invite you to join us for Sunday Mass at 9:00 AM to experience what it means to be a part of our parish community.

THE FESTIVAL

The 11th Annual St. Elizabeth Catholic Church Jazz & Food Festival blends traditional and Contemporary jazz with great food in a Christian, family-oriented atmosphere. This highly anticipated summertime tradition continues to attract many Richmonder's to the Highland Park Community. Visitors can groove to the sounds of professional jazz musicians, browse the offerings of local vendors, and enjoy a variety of food and beverages from our beer and wine garden and local Food Trucks.

Every year, this highly anticipated summertime tradition continues to attract hundreds of jazz and food enthusiasts and aficionados from all over Richmond and the surrounding area to come together to celebrate family, food and jazz music. We continue to improve upon the lessons learned after every festival; with your help, we can make this year's event the biggest yet.

Since 2008, St. Elizabeth Catholic Church has used the Jazz & Food Festival to partner with local businesses and professionals to serve as the sole annual fundraiser for the St. Elizabeth Parish and its various ministries. Most importantly, the Jazz & Food Festival is an excellent way to promote evangelization among St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, the members of its parish and the Highland Park Community for which it dwells.

The 11th Annual St. Elizabeth Jazz & Food Festival is an opportunity for local businesses to support the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, engage with new and old customers, and make a positive impact in the Highland Park Community. We are hoping for your support to continue to make a difference.

“

Thank you for such an enjoyable and sweet evening of Food & Jazz. Your hard work and dedication to bring great jazz artists to the Highland Park Community is greatly appreciated.
